League of Friends to pay for operations?

PATIENTS DENIED OPPORTUNITY OF SURGERY IN AXMINSTER

AXMINSTER Hospital League of Friends might temporarily subsidise day-case surgery in Axminster to keep the services in town.

The conditional offer is made in a letter in which the league claims that the option of having surgery in Axminster is kept quiet by the NHS.

NHS Devon has confirmed that an NHS locality board will meet on Wednesday, February 27th to make a decision on what day-case surgery will be available in Axminster.

The hospital is managed by Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust, but day case surgery is commissioned by NHS Devon and provided by Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust (RD&E).

As previously reported in Pulman's View, fears were expressed in December by local GPs that the number of operations carried out could be reduced.

They "deplored the withdrawal of services" but NHS Devon said no decision had been made – but confirmed the day case unit in Axminster was deemed under-used and "therefore expensive to run" by the RD&E Trust.

Credible evidence

In a strongly-worded letter to NHS locality managing director John Finn, the league writes: "We understand that the RD&E Hospital as provider of surgery has stated that not enough patients choose to use the facilities at Axminster.

"However, we believe that many more would if they were properly informed and not persuaded to attend Wexford. We have credible evidence that many local patients are being denied the opportunity of being treated locally.

"One of our committee describes having to insist that he wanted to have an operation here."

Removing day-case surgery would also be a blow to local fundraising efforts.

The letter explained: "The league has raised funds to the extent of well over £3 million from the people of Axminster and surrounding areas over the past few years which has paid for a new extension for the hospital and enormous amounts of surgical equipment as well beds, furnishing and other items.

"This was supposed to benefit the community and seemed to tie in with NHS policy of treating people lo-

No joy for Tigers and the Vikings

BOTH local teams suffered home defeats in the South-West Peninsula League division One (East) at the weekend.

Sidmouth Town's improvement continued as they pushed visiting Appledore all the way before going down 3-2 at Manstone Road. At the same time Axminster Town took the lead but couldn't cling on as they went down to a disappointing 4-1 reverse against Totnes & Dartington.

The Vikings, still marooned seven points adrift at the foot of the table, have an opportunity to close that gap at the weekend when they visit next-to-bottom Crediton United.

Next up for the Tigers is a visit by Appledore - both games kick-off at 3pm

Down in the Devon & Exeter League the top three in the premier division all won. Top-of-the-table Feniton overcame a gritty Topsham Town outfit to clinch a 3-1 win at Acland Park and maintain their three-point lead.

Next up for still unbeaten Fenny is a real title six-pointer with Saturday's visit by second-placed Hatherleigh Town.

Feniton were due to take on Seaton Town in the rearranged East Devon Senior cup-tie on Sunday, but the game was once again postponed.

Seaton's scheduled visit by Newtown 24 hours previously was also postponed. The Seasideers are set to travel to Thorverton looking to halt an alarming six game win less run.

Meanwhile, Richard Walker's ninth goal of the season couldn't save Beer Albion from a 4-1 defeat at Hatherleigh. The Fishermen set sail for Topsham at the weekend.

In division one Sidbury United's title aspirations received a blow as they were held to a 2-2 draw at lowly Tipton St John. But the Seagulls will have been heartened by news of rivals Tiverton Town Reserves' 1-0 defeat at Heavitree Social United. Sidbury, still unbeaten, travel to Wellington Reserves on Saturday.

Down in division two Honiton Town's seven game winning run came to an end as they went down 3-1 at title favourites Elmore. The Lacemen will hope for better when they visit Colaton Raleigh for a Firewatch Devon Senior cup quarter-final on Saturday.

AXMINSTER

Friends to pay for operations?

AXMINSTER Hospital League of Friends might temporarily subsidise day-case surgery in Axminster to keep the services in town.

The conditional offer is made in a letter in which the league claims that the option of having surgery in Axminster is kept quiet by the NHS.

NHS Devon has confirmed that a NHS locality board will meet on Wednesday, February 27th to make a decision on what day-case surgery will be available in Axminster.

The hospital is managed by Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust, but day case surgery is commissioned by NHS Devon and provided by Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust (RD&E).

As previously reported in Pulman's View, fears were expressed in December by local GPs that the number of operations carried out could be reduced.

They "deplored the withdrawal of services" but NHS Devon said no decision had been made – but confirmed the day case unit in Axminster was deemed under-used and "therefore expensive to run" by the RD&E trust.

In a strongly-worded letter to NHS locality MD John Finn, the league writes: "We understand that the RD&E Hospital as provider of surgery has stated that not enough patients choose to use the facilities at Axminster.

"However, we believe that many more would if they were properly informed and not persuaded to attend Wonford. We have credible evidence that many local patients are being denied the opportunity of being treated locally."

Removing day-case surgery would also be a blow to local fundraising efforts.

The letter explained: "The league has raised funds to the extent of well over £3 million from the people of Axminster and surrounding areas over the past few years which has paid for a new extension for the hospital and enormous amounts of surgical equipment as well beds, furnishing and other items.

"This was supposed to benefit the community and seemed to tie in with NHS policy of treating people locally rather than having to travel considerable distances.

The league also indicates it might provide more money to keep services in the town.

Members of the league wrote: "The league might be willing to subsidise a service temporarily whilst changes are made but we would wish to suggest three conditions:

"The charge for the use of theatres should represent the actual cost of use.

"The RD&E work with us and local practices to offer all suitable patients the choice of surgery in Axminster

"The RD&E allows those of its consultants who wish to operate in Axminster to do so in their own time."

From the editor's chair Hands off our hospital

WITH an ageing population health care in East Devon is of huge importance to the people who live in Pulman's Country.

We read with horror of the appalling care in hospitals in mid-Staffordshire, leading to hundreds of people dying prematurely, and count our blessings that we have the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital on our doorstep.

More importantly, how fortunate is this area to have community hospitals in Axminster, Seaton, Sidmouth, Honiton and Ottery St Mary where facilities for convalescing, midwifery, minor operations and injuries are provided.

They provide essential services close to home and attached to each one of these fine establishments are groups of volunteers who have raised millions of pounds over the years to provide equipment and make life more comfortable for patients, the vast majority of whom are elderly.

This has certainly been the case in Axminster where the League of Friends have raised and invested an incredible £3 million in the town's hospital where minor operations have been carried out for many years.

But as evidenced on our recent Letters Page, there is real concern in the town over the future of surgery facilities in Axminster. Local GPs have "deplored" the withdrawal of services after the NHS Trust, which runs the hospital, claimed the day case unit was under-used and therefore too expensive.

As reported on our Axminster front page and the news digest on this page, the hospital League of Friends hit back by saying they have credible evidence that many local patients are being denied the opportunity of being treated locally.

The League of Friends, having already raised the incredible sum of £3 million over the years, are now even offering to pay for operations whilst a solution is found. Can you believe it?

◆ THERE'S pantomime and there's village panto. And then there's All Saints.

My trip through pantoland continued last week with a visit to All Saints Village Hall where the local pantomime society celebrated their 21st anniversary by staging "Robin Hood" in their own inimitable style.

I was invited to attend Saturday's gala performance where villagers gathered for supper before one final performance to raise money for the village hall. During the interval the cast came out front to help serve the teas and coffees.

My review will appear in next week's Pulman's View. Penned by Jo Ellis, it was the best home-grown script I can recall. Very clever indeed.

SEATON

■ THE new design for Seafeld Gardens

Work begins on Seafeld Gardens

EAST Devon District Council (EDDC) has started work on the £35,000 refurbishment of Seaton's Seafeld Gardens in preparation of the summer months.

Work began on the gardens yesterday (February 11th) with the hope that the new design will draw in tourists during the summer season.

The planned feature, which will be managed by EDDC, is set to include a new amphitheatre style seating area looking out to the sea, interpretation panels including information on the area's history and a giant chess and draughts board for garden visitors to enjoy.

The £35,000 investment for Seafeld Gardens has been a much-needed and long-awaited improvement scheme for Seaton and the local community have been consulted at every stage to ensure the gardens not only welcome future tourists, but can be enjoyed by the people of Seaton.

After the current large water feature in the gardens was worn out and too costly to maintain, EDDC asked residents of Seaton during 2011 for their thoughts on how to improve the broken water feature.

In late 2012 at voting events held by EDDC, residents had two options to choose between, either the new design for the area or repairing the water feature and leaving the area as it is.

The winning option, with 60 per cent of votes from 139 Seaton residents, was the new design derived from several common ideas that came from the community.

The refurbishments are set to be completed in five weeks, despite the project being complex, involving several different contractors and the area of the gardens below the clock tower and towards the seafront will be closed for health and safety reasons.

COLYTON

Tory chairman steps down after 15 years

CHAIRMAN of Colyton and Colyford Conservatives, Dennis Baker, has stepped down after more than 15 years in the role.

Mr Baker announced his resignation at the annual general meeting of the branch, part of the Tiverton and Honiton Conservatives Association, and passed the chairmanship over to Simon Card OBE, who served as deputy chairman for the previous year.

Mr Baker and his wife Doreen have lived in Colyford for many years and both play an active role in the community, as members of St Andrew's Church in Colyton and St Michael's in Colyford. He had a distinguished army career during the Second World War, serving with Field Marshall Montgomery's Eighth Army at El Alamein.

New chairman Mr Card moved to Colyford with wife Mary two years ago. They now run Harepath Farm Bed and Breakfast on the outskirts of the village.

Mr Card has been a member of the Conservatives for almost 50 years, first joining the Young Conservatives at age 15 in Edinburgh. He has since held many positions within the party's branches at national, regional and constituency level.

SIDMOUTH Plans to refurbish town's library

SIDMOUTH residents are being encouraged to have their say on proposed plans to refurbish the town's library.

Devon County Council hopes to encourage the local community to get involved and state what they would like to see as part of the refurbishment.

Heading the project is Devon County Council Cabinet Member Roger Croad who hopes to reach out to as many people in the Sid Valley as possible.

He said: "Sidmouth Library is an important resource at the heart of the community, but over the years people have stopped using it so much, which is a shame.

"It's time for us to update the library and make it more appealing by providing a modern facility that is fit for the changing needs of the community and that everyone wants to use.

"We want to make it more welcoming, brighter, more comfortable and inviting, and improve the layout and flow of the building to make it more accessible."

HONITON

Recycling awards

A DEDICATED recycler from Honiton has been recognised for her commitment to protecting Devon's environment at a special awards ceremony.

Honiton woman Karen Berger was selected as the winner of the 'Your Recycling Hero - Local Recycling Champion' as well as the 'Overall Recycling Hero for Devon' at the event held last Thursday.

The awards came after being nominated by friends and family members for her dedication and driving force to launch her 'Waste Not Want Not' event, which aims to save hundreds of reusable items from landfill.

The Recycle Devon Thank You awards marked the ten-year anniversary of the 'Don't Let Devon Go To Waste' campaign, celebrating the county's super recyclers.

Organised by Recycle Devon, the event highlighted Devon as one of the best counties in the country for recycling, with a rate of 55 per cent.

Millwey business boss frustrated over derelict site plans process

By Anders Larsson

anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A MILLWEY Rise business owner has expressed his frustration over not being informed about an important planning application near to his factory.

EDDC last year approved plans to build 36 dwellings on the derelict site between Chard Road and Millwey Rise Industrial Estate in Axminster.

The application was approved in November but Shaun Vining, who owns Complete Meats, says he knew nothing about the application until the decision was made.

In a letter to EDDC's planning department, he wrote: "I have a business located directly opposite the site which is on the industrial estate."

"I am very disappointed that we and the adjacent businesses were not informed that the application had been made and that no sign has been put up on the site to make the public aware of the application, particularly as the application is on industrial land proposing to change it to housing and that the entrance to this new development will only be accessed from the industrial estate on a notorious bad bend."

Frustration

Mr Vining told Axminster Town Council about his frustration during its January meeting, and received a lot of sympathy as the town council had unsuccessfully recommended that the application be refused.

On the issue of notifying neighbours, town councillor Jeremy Walden said it was his understanding that EDDC would only contact owners or occupiers of residential properties.

EDDC has since responded through a statement to Pulman's View, in which a spokesperson said: "In this particular case, a number of site notices were placed around the site and 29 neighbours notified by letter on January 20th 2012, including three industrial units closest to the site in Millwey Rise."

EDDC confirmed that Mr Vining's business (located in Unit C) was not among those directly contacted.

The spokesperson added that EDDC's policy is to: "Notify by letter all those properties that are directly about the application site, excluding any road that is along the curtilage of the site."

About this particular case, the spokesperson added: "Some businesses were informed, site notices were put up and the application was advertised twice in a local paper."

"All applications are included on our website."

Skydiving in memory of Lizzie

■ FROM PAGE ONE Their initiative has a tragic cause, though.

Sarah and Jo's sister, Lizzie, died on September 8th last year after an accident and the skydive will take place on April 27th, Lizzie's birthday.

Emily, Justine and Josie were her best friends, and will all raise money for the intensive care unit which tried to save her.

Lizzie was a contributing supporter of the air ambulance, which is Sarah's chosen cause, and Cancer Research

UK was close to her heart, which is why Jo has chosen it as her cause.

Their skydive will be at Dunkeswell and will be a first for all five.

Justine said: "I think you can say we are all terrified."

Friends' offer to subsidise hospital services

"We understand that a theatre charge of £2,000 per session could be the main reason that it is not financially viable to operate at Axminster and would question the appropriateness of this when the facilities and equipment have been paid for by the league.

"It would seem wholly inappropriate for Axminster to lose the surgery because of a charge which would then no longer be paid.

"We understand that there are local consultants who would be willing to continue operating at Axminster and that you are trying to arrange for GP specialists to provide endoscopy."

The league also indicates it might provide more money to keep services in the town.

Members of the league wrote: "The league might be willing to subsidise a service temporarily whilst changes are made but we would wish to suggest three conditions:

"The charge for the use of theatres should represent the actual cost of use.

"The RD&E work with us and local practices to offer all suitable patients the choice of surgery in Axminster.

"The RD&E allows those of its consultants who wish to operate in Axminster to do so in their own time."

"We would welcome a comprehensive reply to this letter explaining the reasons for R D and E actions and hope that a compromise can be reached to make full use of the facilities we have worked so hard to provide at Axminster Hospital."

District council backing organ donation campaign

COUNCILLOR INSPIRED BY DAUGHTER'S TRAGIC DEATH

A LOCAL councillor's campaign to encourage more people to sign up as organ donors and change national policy is being backed by East Devon District Council.

Councillor Steve Gazzard, who sits on the district council representing Exmouth, launched the campaign following the tragic death of his daughter, Sarah Wright, who died in November at the age of 36, leaving behind husband Richie, 36, and three young children - Harry, 10, Billy, 7, and Marnie, 5. She had fought the chronic lung condition idiopathic pulmonary fibrosis for two years, and had been waiting for a double lung transplant for over a year. Sadly no matching donor could be found in time to save her life.

Councillor Gazzard said: "Although it was a devastating blow to lose my beautiful Sarah, some good came out of her early and tragic death.

"I promised Sarah that I would continue to fight her corner and I intend to honour her wishes by getting more organ donors signed up and hopefully getting the present failed 'opt in' system changed to an 'opt out' system."

This month East Devon District Council is showing its support for the drive to sign up more organ donors as it hosts a prominent stand in its Knowle headquarters. The council will be highlighting the issue with visitors to its offices, and also asking its staff to consider taking time from their day to sign up as organ donors. It will also feature organ donation on its website homepage for the week and encourage its social media followers to sign up as well.

Council leader Paul Diviani said: "Everyone at East Devon was moved by Sarah's fight against her disease and saddened by her passing. We are all 100 per cent behind Steve's campaign and are very pleased to be doing our bit to encourage our staff and customers to sign up as organ donors.

Long waiting lists

"It's an absolute tragedy that so many people like Sarah lose their lives due to this country's long waiting lists for organs, and we, like Steve, think there's a need for the Government to take a fundamental look at the system."

The move follows unanimous backing from councillors in December, where the 56-strong council membership pledged to support the organ donor drive and Councillor Gazzard's wider campaign to lobby the Government over the UK's current 'opt-in' organ donor system.

The council joins Councillor Gazzard and his family in wanting this modified to an 'opt-out' system, where people are taken to have given their consent for organ donation unless they have specifically registered a wish not to.

The council is urging people to sign an online petition on this issue, available at <http://epetitions.direct.gov.uk/petitions/38220>. Organisers hope that this petition will gain over 100,000 signatures by September this year, the required amount to potentially trigger a parliamentary debate on the issue.

A chronic lack of donors in the UK means that all organ recipients face months, or even years, on a waiting list - around 1,000 people die each year while waiting for a suitable organ. Sadly for patients like Sarah Wright there is a particularly big problem with donor lungs; there were only 138 lung transplants in the UK last year, compared with nearly 2,000 kidney transplants.

Sarah was an organ donor herself, and her family have had some comfort from knowing that her organs helped three other patients get a new lease on life. Her kidneys went to two young women who had spent several years on dialysis, while her liver was given to a 50-year-old man with chronic liver disease.

To find out more about organ donation and sign up as a donor, visit www.organdonation.nhs.uk, call 0300 123 23 23 or text the word 'SAVE' to 84118.

East Devon parishes are quids in!

COMMUNITIES throughout East Devon will feel the benefit of money from EDDC and Devon County Council after town and parish councils successfully bid for £20,900 from the Parishes Together Fund. And there's still time for other parishes to apply.

East Devon District Council and Devon County Council have worked together to put the sum of £1.10p per elector into a 'Parishes Together Fund' grants scheme.

The successful projects were:

- ◆ Setting up a community shop in Hawkchurch, supported by Hawkchurch and Axminster.
- ◆ A new vehicle for a Ring and Ride Scheme, supported by Axminster, Membury, Musbury and Kilmington
- ◆ Improvement and promotion of a befriending and help scheme, supported by Ottery St Mary, Newton Poppleford, Talaton, Rockbeare, Aylesbeare, Feniton and Gittisham.
- ◆ A project to engage more residents in a Community

Land Trust to try to bring in affordable housing, supported by Upton Pyne and Cowley and Bramford Speke. The final closing date for Town and Parish Councils to apply for this funding is 1 March 2013, so there's still time.

If you know of a project that might benefit contact your local Parish Council, find out how at: www.eastdevon.gov.uk/mapping/parish_and_town_councils

The funding is available to town and parish councils working together and involving the community to try and solve local issues. All applications must be submitted jointly from two or more parishes. The funding could be used for anything from permanent items to events, networks and one-off costs.

To find out more go to:

www.eastdevon.gov.uk/parishestogetherfund
EDDC's part of the funding has come from the New Homes Bonus, which is paid by the Government to EDDC for every new home built or brought back into use. DCC's part of the funding has come from its main budgets.

High standard

Councillor Ray Bloxham, EDDC Member and chairman of the New Homes Bonus Panel which made the decision on the applications, said: "In this time of financial need this is an important fund that we have set up jointly with Devon County Council.

"I was very impressed with the high standard of the projects and felt that they were all important community projects that need support in the current financial climate. "I would encourage town and parish councils to talk to their neighbours and others throughout the district and apply for this pot of money quickly before the final closing date of March 1st 2013."

Councillor John Hart, Leader of Devon County Council, said: "In difficult financial times such as these, we must do all we can to help local communities to help themselves.

"I firmly believe decisions should be made as locally as possible to encourage local accountability and I have always advocated more partnership with our district, town and parish colleagues.

"You often get much better value for money in meeting local priorities and aspirations by spending cash locally, and this fund certainly supports this aim by giving councillors the opportunity to back local initiatives, kick start local projects and support community action".

BUSINESS NEWS

Sylvie retires

THE owner of an Axminster business has decided take life easier and close after 40 years of trading.

Sylvie Pryer started K.P & S, a rabbit net mail order business, as a hobby from her home when she lived in Melplash.

But the business outgrew her spare room, so she set up shop in Castle Street, Axminster, in 1977.

The business grew to include garden nets, fruit cages and other garden equipment as well as ferreting gear and fishing nets.

Sylvie and her husband also ran a market stall and attended agricultural shows and game fairs all over the country.

She continued to run the shop after her husband's death, but a back injury eventually forced her to close it.

In 2002, she reverted to the mail order concept, setting up a base at her Axminster home.

She has now decided to retire, though, because of health reasons and to look after her mother.

She also aims to do some travelling. Sylvie said: "Thanks to everyone who has supported my business over the years."

She is selling off remaining stock, and more information is available on 01297 33920.

Trader forced to change tack after being beaten up

AN Axminster man has been forced to change his business direction because of serious injuries sustained in an affray just before Christmas.

Terry Barker suffered a catalogue of injuries, including multiple fractures, when he attacked in Silver Street just before Christmas last year.

Mr Barker owns Shoe Mate but is, for the time being, unable to repair shoes and cut keys because of injuries to his hands.

Instead, he has set up Barker's Baby Gear with his partner Jessica in the Shoe Mate premises, selling clothing and toys.

Barker's Baby Gear opened on Thursday and Mr Barker said about the new business: "If it turns out that I haven't got proper use of my hands, it will be a permanent thing."

"I'm very sorry that I've had to stop Shoe Mate, but due to what happened I'm unable to carry on."

The incident is being investigated by police but to date no arrests have been made.

Legion are looking for new poppy organisers

By Philip Evans
philip@pemedias.co.uk

THE Axminster branch of the Royal British Legion is looking for volunteers to organise their annual Poppy Appeal.

Keith and Yvonne Taylor have organised the Poppy fundraising for the last ten years, raising tens of thousands of pounds for the Legion.

But they are now looking to stand down, although they will be happy to work alongside a new organiser for the 2013 collections.

The first year that Mr and Mrs Taylor took over the Poppy collections they raised just over £5,000; last year the total exceeded £10,780.

Mrs Taylor said: "Applicants do not need to be members of the Royal British Legion but must be sympathetic to their aims and objectives."

Anyone interested in taking over the running of the appeal should contact Keith or Yvonne on 01297 33641 or the branch secretary, Alan Brown, on 01297 35099 for an informal chat.

The venue, which is becoming a household name worldwide thanks to its role in Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall's television series, had been closed for a month to undergo a refit.

But it officially reopened on Friday, February 1st with a celebratory dinner.

When asked to sum up five years in Axminster, Mr Fearnley-Whittingstall said: "It's been terrific."

Good intentions

"I think we had good ideas and good intentions, and we never stop learning how to do things."

He also praised local producers, and added: "I'm absolutely thrilled with the refit."

The refit includes a new kitchen, for which former head chef Tim Maddams was given credit.

Mr Fearnley-Whittingstall said: "Tim told us for years how much we needed a new kitchen."

Mr Maddams left his post in April, but attended the birthday do and seemed to approve of the new kitchen.

January crime figures down

CRIME in Seaton for January 2013 was at a low with only 14 reported crimes in the Axe Valley area, compared to 28 the previous year and an average figure of 23 for January over the last 10 years.

These included three incidents of theft (including one unlawful taking of a motor vehicle), four of criminal damage and three of assault.

Seaton police will continue to work with the community and hope they can keep crime at an all time low.

Going for gold

MEMBERS of Beer Horticultural Society will be entering the South West in Bloom competition once again this year – and this time they're going for gold.

At the group's AGM in January, chairman Ursula Makepeace praised the successes of 2012 but expressed disappointment at receiving only the silver gilt certificate.

Bloom judges advised Ms Makepeace that more attention must be paid to the environment criteria this year, with the section picking up 25 per cent of the marks. The group hope to work with the local councils and the community to improve the village.

Bloom judges will return for judging to Beer during the first two weeks in July.

Tea dances at the town hall

SEATON Town Hall was alive with glamour and dancing as a regular tea dance afternoon event was launched.

Organised by Seaton's Voice following many requests from the local public, the Gateway Hall was packed full of dancers, glammed up in dresses and dancing shoes who enjoyed a selection of dances by candlelight.

More than 40 people attended the afternoon, enjoying ballroom and sequence dancing from Latin to line and barn dances, led by dance tutors Dennis and Olympius Samuel.

The group of dancers then enjoyed teas, coffees and a selection of cakes before a raffle was drawn.

A spokesperson for Seaton's Voice said: "We were absolutely delighted to see over 40 people attending our tea dance."

"We want to create an intimate atmosphere with candles on tables

by Laura Goldsbury Noy

and soft lighting with refreshments and a raffle at the interval.

"Dennis and Olympius, the dance tutors who led the event, have many years of experience working on cruise ships and in various venues throughout the South West."

"Their professionalism was evident and the interaction with everyone made for a fun time."

"We had lots of lovely comments of appreciation and promises of return and we are looking forward to transforming our hall regularly into a local dance hub."

The afternoon tea dances will take place regularly every third Monday of the month from 2:30pm until 4:30pm and everyone is welcome. Entrance costs £5 including tea and cake.

The Gateway will also be used for ballroom dance classes every third Monday of the month from 7:15pm until 10pm, where keen dancers can come and learn ballroom, sequence and social dancing. There will be a licenced bar with teaching and open dance sessions available.

● SEATON'S Voice have also recently announced their chosen charity of the year - Children's Hospice South West (CHSW.)

At a recent 'Joey and the Lips' concert, the group raised £130 for the charity. They hope to reach a goal of at least £1,000 by the end of the year.

Knitting for baby unit

■ SEATON's Knit and Natter ladies have been busy at work again, this time knitting piles of baby clothes to support the arrival of Devon's premature babies. The group meet every Thursday at No 1 in Harepath Road, and were pleased to be able to support such a worthy cause. Age UK volunteers and keen knitters, Anne Howe and Vera Nicholas, visited the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital's premature babies unit to hand over the donation of baby clothes. The pair are pictured delivering their gifts to staff on the specialist baby unit.

Chris to run Grizzly in aid of local dementia centres

■ BIG CHALLENGE | Chris Driver will be tackling the gruelling Grizzly Run in March to raise money for Dementia support centres

A BEER man will be braving the famous 20-mile Grizzly Run to raise money for two local dementia centres.

Chris Driver will battle the gruelling Grizzly conditions on March 10th after being inspired to raise funds for the Rowan and Linden Dementia support centres in Ottery St Mary and the Conybeare and Willow Centres in Axminster.

This will be the second time Chris will be taking part in the Grizzly and is looking forward to fundraising in honour of his grandparents, Betty and the late Ron Russell, who both suffered with the memory loss condition.

Chris' aunt Bev Giles is a clinical support worker at the Ottery centres, which recently won a national Innovation and Best Practice in Community Hospitals Award.

The 27-year-old explained: "The centres are close to my heart. I know they provide an excellent service and I'd really like to support them."

Whilst being a keen footballer and a member of the Axe Valley Runners, Chris also works in Exeter for drinks distributor 'Tradetam,' who have agreed to the match the figure he raises.

Chris' cousin Nicola Russell is also taking part and will raise money for The Donkey Sanctuary at Sidmouth, where she works.

If you would like to sponsor Chris, call the Rowan Assessment Centre team on 01404 816025.

Toby completes dry run

HIS fundraising stunt may not have been as daring as a skydive or as demanding as a mountain climb, but Seaton man Toby Moore's alcohol-free month is expected to net £500 for charity.

The 23-year-old Pullman's View sales executive from Seaton took on what is known as a Dryathlon Challenge, in aid of Cancer Research UK.

Mr Moore chose the charity because his half-brother once suffered from cancer.

The challenge was completed on Thursday, February 7th and Mr Moore said it had been "fairly easy" apart from the third weekend.

He is currently collecting the money from sponsors and says pledges top £500.

To his sponsors, he said: "Thank you very much for your support. I know some of you thought I couldn't do it."

Walk your way to health

A NEW programme of walks on the Axe Estuary Wetlands was launched on Thursday to promote exercise and healthy living.

The 'Walk This Way' scheme was launched by Leisure East Devon (LED) in partnership with NHS Devon, Seaton and Colyton Medical Centre and East Devon District Council's Countryside Team.

Many keen walkers met at the Axe Estuary Wetlands car park next to Seaton Cemetery on Thursday morning, where the first walk was led by local nature reserve officer Fraser Rush.

Walk this Way was first introduced to East Devon in 2001 to encourage people of all ages and abilities, including those with health and mobility problems, to introduce walking as part of their routine and lifestyle.

All walks will be led by qualified volunteer walk leaders who have undergone the National Walking the Way to Health training, as well as receiving training in first aid resuscitation. The walk routes are kept short so that they can easily be fitted into a daily routine.

The walks aim to get more people exercising and tackle the recent rise in weight-related health problems.

Walk co-ordinator Andrew Dare said: "The walks are aimed at people who are doing very little or no exercise at present, but who would like to become more active. However, everyone is welcome."

"Walkers are encouraged to walk at their own comfortable stimulating pace; this varies from person to person. Anyone with a history of heart problems or other medical conditions should consult their doctor beforehand."

Dr Joe Kent, from Seaton and Colyton Medical Practice, added: "For many people, going for a regular brisk walk can be a great way to increase physical activity levels, gain enhanced physical and psychological health benefits, and improve the way you feel about your life."

"This scheme offers the added benefit of meeting up with others and exploring some of the most beautiful areas of our community".

The scheme has been supported by East Devon District Council, with Councillors Iain Chubb, Jim Knight and Phil Twiss taking part on Thursday.

Councillor Chubb, EDDC's Cabinet Member for Environment, commented: "The council is delighted to be a partner in this new health walk, especially as it has been developed on one of our nature reserves, the Axe Estuary Wetlands."

"The opportunity for those participating on the walk to see a huge array of wildlife and to take in the panoramic views while following a course of action recommended by their GP shows how we can help to improve the health and well being of local people in creative and interesting ways."

"The positive health impacts of being outdoors in the natural environment are now well documented and so we shall be looking to further develop opportunities on other nature reserves managed by our Countryside Team".

Walks are free of charge and refreshments will be available at the end.

For more information contact Andrew Dare on 01404 814 317 or email outreach@ledleisure.co.uk

Caterpillars explore life Down Under...

CHILDREN from Colyton Caterpillars pre-school learnt all about Australia last week.

The youngsters held their own Australia Day with lots of fun-packed activities, including kangaroo walks for which they tied teddy bears to their tummies.

The children also took part in kangaroo art, outback-theme word play and Australian cake baking. They made their own Australian flags and learnt where the country was by looking at an atlas.

■ YESTERDAY (Monday) the Caterpillars had fun with a Prince and Princess Day.

Activities included dressing up in costumes, flower arranging, nail painting and face painting.

The children tucked into a giant princess cake at snack time and baked their own royal-theme fairy cakes. They also made princess pictures and crowns, magic fairy wands and fairy dust to take home.

One parent event made the tots their own wooden castle.

...and get the royal treatment

Birds and the bees in Beer

BEER Arts Groups (BAGS) and Beer Village Heritage (BVH) recently hosted a social evening entitled "The Birds and the Bees" at Beer Social Club.

The audience was treated to a presentation by Dr Humphrey Sitters, who explained how he had turned his lifelong interest in birds on their habitat into a profession after returning to university, having worked as a solicitor for many years.

He explained how several of his research programmes have shown how the environment influences the number and breed of birds in an area, and how he spent hours watching oystercatchers from a hide in the middle of the Exe estuary as they used different methods to open their preferred meal of mussels.

Dr Sitters has been involved with a number of projects looking at migration routes and revealed that some small birds have been tracked flying for as far as 8,000 kilometres non-stop.

John Hewson talked about his hobby of bee-keeping and explained how a bee hive is structured to ensure that the queen is kept in optimum condition so that she will lay sufficient eggs – up to 2,500 a day in the summer – so that there will be enough workers and drones to keep the colony supplied with pollen and nectar to provide protein and carbohydrate. He gave the group some useful information about which trees, shrubs and flowers are particularly useful for bees.

Mr Hewson was joined by Rowland Molony who showed the group two of the products from hives, honey and propolis. He described how he collects swarms and reassured his audience that they are made up of well-fed bees who are unable to use their stings.

Rosemary Hewson and Elizabeth Molony entertained the group by describing some of the pitfalls of being the wife of a bee-keeper.

East Devon Women's Institutes ROUND UP

HONITON AFTERNOON WI

AT their first meeting of the New Year, members of Honiton Afternoon WI were pleased to welcome Police Community Support Officer Barry Redford, who gave a very interesting account of his work in Honiton over the past 10 years.

He explained to members how varied his duties could be from day-to-day, covering house-to-house enquiries, visiting schools, dealing with under age drinking, traffic control in the event of an accident and domestic situations, to name but a few.

He said that although he is retiring in a few weeks' time he really had enjoyed his work in the town, meeting people, problem solving and doing his best to be approachable.

It had been a very interesting afternoon and members felt that Barry would be greatly missed by the residents of Honiton.

Probus club given pictorial tour of Devon

FEW would dispute Devon's claim to be a beautiful county, and yet few are as well aware of its charms as Tony Burges.

In his talk to Axminster Probus Club he took his listeners on a pictorial tour of the county.

As an Exeter and Dartmoor tour guide of many years he regularly leads parties to the wonders of those places. With 500 miles of coastline and two National Parks there is plenty to see. Despite his busy life he somehow finds time to visit and record all parts of what is the third largest county in England.

Mr Burges' slides illustrated the coast and geology of the area, the hills and the valleys, towns and moors, and the wildlife which abounds in the countryside. He led his audience through time from the earliest traces through to the Celts, Vikings, Romans and Normans.

Devon has a high proportion of incomers and these are very likely to be keen on exploring the county. Even so the talk must have been an eye-opener to many who had not realised what a wealth of history and beauty was around.

One of the attractive features of Devon is that the breasting of every rise usually results in a new panorama. This talk showed that there are many more rises still to be appreciated.

Axminster Probus Club for retired and semi-retired business and professional men meets at the Kilmington Cafe, Bistro & Motel on the A35 Gammons Hill on the first Tuesday of each month. For further information ring 01460 220528.

Modern demonstration at Sidmouth club

AT Sidmouth Flower Arrangement Club's first meeting of the New Year Charlotte Le Marquand came all the way up from West Cornwall in extremely poor weather conditions to be demonstrator.

She received a very warm and appreciative reception from members.

Charlotte works for a floristry business and has not long qualified as a demonstrator so the group were pleased to give her encouragement and extra experience.

Her work was mostly modern and full of flair. Her first design used strelitzias and bold leaves in modern containers; three identical arrangements on one long base which would suit a contemporary setting wonderfully.

A vertical piece using flowers and berries layered in various shades of pink and red in a tall silver pot was very dramatic. Her use of colours and shading was lovely and when the stage was filled with the six pieces of work it was a most cheering sight on a rainy winters afternoon.

The members' competition, "Crisp and Cool", attracted 14 entries, which was excellent for the time of year.

February's meeting will be the club's annual luncheon and there will be a members' competition for a miniature design to be called "A Splash of Colour".

Horticultural Society visit the Wetlands

MEMBERS of Uplyme and Lyme Regis Horticultural Society enjoyed a winter visit to the Axe Valley Wetlands in Seaton recently.

Doug Rudge from East Devon District Council met the group and gave an explanation how the area had been developed so far and what was still planned. Members then visited the two hides in Black Hole Marsh for some bird watching before moving onto the main visitor centre for refreshments and to hear about the ambitious project for the next marsh development in Seaton.

Members were also shown the Sand Martin wall that is being constructed at the moment with the help of numerous volunteers. It is hoped that it will be ready for this summer and will be used not only by Sand Martins, but also bats and nesting Kingfishers.

Beer's Music 4 Life raises over £1,300

by Laura Goldsbury Noy
laura@pemedial.co.uk

FUNDRAISERS for Cancer Research UK raised just over £1,300 when they held a day of events to celebrate the national 'Music 4 Life' event.

The Beer Friends of Cancer Research UK group organised a day of events to boost funds for the cancer charity last Saturday, when they filled the Mariners Hall with the sound of music from a number of local artists and bands.

The day began with a table top sale at Beer's Mariners Hall with Cancer Research UK merchandise, toys and bric-a-brac to home-made cakes and goodies and individual stalls featuring crafts and handiwork from local businesses.

Visitors to the morning enjoyed the huge range of stalls as well as teas, coffees and bacon butties provided by volunteers.

The event continued in the evening, when the hall was transformed into a concert venue and hub for local musicians, artists and bands.

Packed full of concertgoers, the evening gave villagers the chance to 'boogie on down through the decades' with a huge number of supporters taking to the stage to boost funds.

Artists on the night included singers and guitar players, Adam Sweet and Dan Crisp, local villagers, The Barries and young brother and sister duo, Eleanor and Oliver Harris, also known as Six Days.

All the musicians also took to the stage for a 'big band jam', which had everyone up, dancing the night away.

David Boalch, volunteer for the Beer Friends of Cancer Research UK said: "We made just over £1,300 at this year's Music 4 Life. It was a grand effort by all especially Steve and Mandy Graham for organising the musicians, all of whom donated their time for free."

"Thanks to all who supported us and to all the Beer Friends of Cancer Research UK who helped to organise and run the event especially as the chairman ended up in bed on the day with flu."

■ Beer Friends of Cancer Research UK embraced the national 'Music 4 Life' event holding a day of fundraising with a busy table top sale and evening concert featuring a wealth of local musicians and artists

Back to Woodfield Magna

WEST Hill-based author Philip Algar's latest novel has just been published – a sequel to his 2010 book, It's Just Not Village Cricket.

Readers are again taken to fictional village Woodfield Magna in It's Just Not Village Politics.

Mr Algar said: "Both books are very topical and certainly relevant to our area in that they tell the story of how a local village reacts to big business and local government – and then, in the latest title – central government, determined to change the village for ever. I also poke fun at many aspects of contemporary life, including politics, self-important businessmen, celebrities, official statistics and much more. The storyline is that the government is determined to change the village by imposing unwanted and unaffordable houses and a juvenile criminal centre."

The book, published by Peak Platform, is available from bookshops, by calling 01404 814157 or emailing the author: philipalgar@btinternet.com

I have been running my private chiropody / podiatry clinics at Townsend House Surgery for over 3 years and due to demand I have recently increased my days, now holding clinics on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

I offer a range of treatments from a simple nail cut to nail surgery, and each treatment plan is priced accordingly.

The nail cutting only service is a shorter appointment and is ideal for those that don't have any other foot care needs. Others like to alternate nail cuts with chiropody treatments as it best suits their requirements. I always aim to work with the patient to find the best treatment plan to suit each individual. Patients feet are then monitored during treatment so that changes can be made should the need arise.

Diabetic patients who attend for chiropody will also have a diabetic foot assessment carried out during their first treatment, and will then be monitored and reassessed as necessary.

My chiropody clinics are available to anybody seeking help with their feet and Townsend House and I look forward to welcoming you.
Bookings can be made by calling 01297 22956.

SHARON Bruce lives in Seaton having moving to the town in 1998.

She lives with her husband, David, and has a 17-year-old daughter, Victoria, and 19-year-old son, James.

As well as looking after her local business, men's clothing shop Osborne's, Sharon has recently took over the challenging task of being a member of Seaton Town Council.

WHAT do you love most about living in Seaton?

The sea. When I was younger, our family holidayed in the seaside village of Polruan in Cornwall. I loved it so much, I always wanted to live by the sea and now my dream has come true. How lucky am I?

WHO can benefit from coming to shop at Osborne's?

Everyone can benefit from shopping at Osborne's. We are friendly and welcoming and will help you shop for those special men in your life, whether it is your husband, partner, son or dad. Our ranges include underwear, footwear, leisure and formal clothing and accessories for all sizes. For example, our jeans start at waist 30 up to waist 68.

WHAT is most rewarding about running a business in the town?

I enjoy being in the community of Seaton and every day, meeting so many friendly and interesting people. We have received so much encouragement and support from local shoppers, our existing loyal Osbornes' customers and visitors from other towns and the world. It's been delightful and enlightening getting to know many people who shop in Seaton every week. From our wonderful time having the business in Beer and being part of their close community, we see about five times as many people daily in the Seaton shop.

WHAT do you hope to achieve as a town councillor?

I hope to encourage a "work with" attitude, to promote grace and respect and appreciation of all. We have so much to wake up each day to. We have a beautiful town with great resources such as the sea, the harbour and river, and lovely people. There are many hard-working town groups and businesses that have been here for many years. Positive changes are already happening and I will work with my fellow councillors and others in the community, with actions committed to help our beautiful town to flourish.

IF you could change something about Seaton, what would it be?

I love Seaton for its natural beauty and charm. There are two things I would like to change and they are: to encourage more of us to be inspired and enriched by our lovely environment and to go and experience what Seaton has and to support the activities in the town, support the shops and businesses, and thereby protect what we have. Also to ask all of us to embrace fully the opportunities for the development of the town, and for us to share the responsibility for making good things happen.

DO you think the town's regeneration scheme is important?

Absolutely, yes! The town's regeneration scheme is vitally important. For too many years, local and district councils appear not to have been working together for the good of Seaton. The town needs clear agreement for development, to ensure the town is regenerated to offer leisure attractions and visitor attractions-indoor and outdoor, housing and employment, business and retail opportunities, health and education resources, and choices in all these aspects, for all budgets and ages.

IN a dream world, where money was no option, what would you like to see in Seaton?

A vibrant high street with flowers and bunting, every day of the week. A variety of national and independent shops offering choices for all ages and budgets. An attractive seafront with a painted sea wall and shops and cafes all along. Outdoor leisure activities such as boating all year round, and in the summer sand and ball pits, some fair-ground rides, and entertainers. A hotel complex with indoor leisure facilities, to include a swimming pool, fitness centre, bowling alley, and cinema. A quay with walkways along the river, seating areas, and shops and cafes by the river. Seaton Tramway extending along the seafront.

WHERE is your favourite holiday destination?

My favourite holiday destination is in France because of the green countryside, extensive woodland and pretty towns and villages. And the wonderful patisseries as I have a passion for pastries and cakes and bread. The countryside is so similar to Devon that it feels like home from home to me.

IF you won the Lottery, what would you do first?

If I won the Lottery I would go on holiday with my family around the world. I want to visit the seven Wonders of the World and other special places. Just to be with the ones you love the most, laughing as you sail under a waterfall or catching your breath after trekking up a mountain, and waking up each day, sharing breakfast, in different places, would be so special.

IF you held the ideal dinner party, what three guests would you invite?

My ideal dinner party would be, other than my family, Hugh Grant, just to sit opposite him and look at him - my ideal eye-candy! Anthony Hopkins to listen to his intelligent conversation, wit and charm, and David Attenborough, to ask and chat about his experiences of travelling around the world and to be inspired by his obvious appreciation of our world and nature.

All-year dog ban a better solution

■ TWICE in recent weeks I have been affected by the lack of a total ban on dogs using the beach at Seaton.

Despite what is written on East Devon District Council's website: "There are many dogs in East Devon and the vast majority belong to responsible owners who take care of them and ensure that they do not foul public areas. Unfortunately the small number of inconsiderate dog owners who do not clear up after their dogs cause problems for the community in general."

It would appear that it is more than a "small number" – or the same inconsiderate and irresponsible people time and again.

On Sunday, January 27th I took my four-year-old granddaughter down to the beach to fly her kite. While we were untangling the strings, she was happily climbing up the slope by the steps by pulling up on the metal rails. I called her over when we were ready and saw to my disgust, that her little pink leather boots and the surface of the slope were all smeared with dog faeces.

Again, to quote the website:

"Dog faeces are unpleasant and can present a serious health hazard, particularly to young children. You can report fouling to us by completing our report animal fouling online form."

I would have done so but the page was "not available at this time". I would recommend that all councillors have a look at <http://bit.ly/UJVsYv> (Diseases From Dogs) and try to imagine if it was one of their young family who was put at risk every time they went to play on the beach between September 30th and May 1st each year. Seven months of risk as opposed to five relatively risk-free months.

We make such a fuss about health and safety in this country, but surely this is a genuine example of ignoring a real risk of serious illness, especially to young children?

The second occasion was yesterday, Tuesday February 5th, when I walked along the beach in the late afternoon wearing a newish pair of trainers. Imagine my revulsion again, to find on arriving home, that dog faeces were embedded in the tread of the sole of my shoes.

I am aware of the correspondence in the local papers about this issue and send this to add to the complaints. Surely it would be cheaper to have a total ban on dogs on the beaches and other places where children play all year round, than to pay out for a dog warden?

Additionally, whilst there seems to be an adequate number of litter bins for humans around the town, perhaps each one should have a dog-refuse one attached to it – or could bins be re-designed to have two entrances?

I apologise to all the responsible and hygienic dog-owners and would like to know what ideas they may have to prevent their reputations being smeared by these others.

'Appalled' at proposed hospital clinic closure

■ I AM writing to say how appalled I was of the proposed closure of many clinics, etc. at Axminster Hospital, with their transfer to the Royal Devon and Exeter Hospital in Exeter.

It is so much easier for people living in East Devon (especially older folk!) to attend a local hospital with less travelling and easier parking (we cannot all go by bus!). The proposal is so disappointing for the League of Friends who only recently spent so much hard-earned money for the major improvements for our benefit.

I wholeheartedly support the continuance of all existing services at Axminster and all community hospitals. I've had many years of treatment at Axminster Hospital and have had operations, x-rays, investigations and on-going attendance at the glaucoma clinic for many years, beginning in the days of Doctor Morton, Finzel, Parkinson and Leech (the last three whose children's at Pippins School!).

Travelling distances are difficult for me and I'm extremely grateful to Axminster Hospital – a very special and much-loved local hospital where one is not only treated with expertise but kindness and friendliness ("small is beautiful", as the saying goes!), greatly appreciated by those of us on our own.

Thank you all and may you long remain for us in every way for many more years.

Econergy Systems

DO YOU remember last winter, when your new year resolution was to 'do something' about the conservatory – the room that rarely gets used because it is either too hot or too cold? Did you do something about it? No? Ok, this is where Econergy Systems Ltd can help. A "Solar Shield" will keep the heat in, in winter. You will notice the difference immediately. Our installers can fit to most conservatories within a day, with very little fuss. In the summer the solar shield will keep out the excesses of heat and glare so that you can use the room to watch tv, read, sew, etc.

Don't just take our word for it – here is an email sent by happy customers, Mr and Mrs P. of Tiverton.

I am writing to tell you how thrilled we are with our Solar Shield Insulation which your expert (and very pleasant) installers fitted 5 weeks ago. We have a large "P" shaped conservatory on a North-east facing wall and although we have two central heating radiators, we have always had to resort to using electric fires in the mornings and evenings.

It is our Dining Room/Snug and we need it to be in constant use, so keeping the heat in during the Winter and out during the Summer, is of equal importance. We still get a shock when we open the door in the morning and find that the temperature is pleasant and several degrees higher than before - and we don't find ourselves rushing to close the door as soon as the sun goes down in the afternoon. Another benefit has been the reduction of glare from the sun through the roof. I am very light sensitive and I found it very unpleasant but the Solar Inserts have reduced the glare considerably. We have also noticed an absence of draughts which adds to the feeling of warmth. We are so grateful to have found you and your excellent product and we can't thank you enough for transforming our conservatory into a year-round part of our home.

We can also clean your conservatory with special cleaning agents, and undertake repairs including replacing polycarbonate and glass panels.

You can contact us on 01404 548540 and we will be only too happy to explain how our systems can be beneficial to you.

Phenomenal! Our conservatory is fitted with vents and even on a hot day we haven't needed to open them since we had Solar Insulation installed. It is so comfortable. Wonderful, amazing, incredible - I just can't believe the difference!

Mrs. Warren, Chippenham

Just to let you know we are very pleased with the effect of the Solar Shield. The conservatory is now more comfortable to sit in during the day, at all times, and keeps warmer longer into the evenings.

We have already noticed a marked improvement in winter heat retention.

Abacus Renewable Energy Ltd

ABACUS Renewable Energy has been accredited to install solar panels since 2009 and boast hundreds of satisfied customers across the South West. For Abacus, renewable energy is a way of life, with their office and ware house electricity supplied totally via renewable energy and 90 per cent of their rubbish is being recycled. Director Stuart Houghton even rides an electric bicycle to work, which is then charged by renewable energy during the day. Stuart said: "We like to go the extra mile and have often completed little jobs at our customer's houses at no additional cost. We've re-fixed kitchen unit doors, replaced light switches, assembled a book case and even walked a customer's dog!" Abacus is able to supply a number of different modules including an all black module which looks particularly good on a slate roof. There are no high pressure sales tactics, work is not sub-contracted out and once you are a customer of Abacus, Stuart will always contact you with up-to-date information on the newest energy-saving equipment on the market. The financial benefits of installing solar panels are clear but the environmental benefits are just as important. What's more Abacus can install a battery backup system so you can have electricity even if there is a power cut.

10 tips to help you go Green

Save energy to save money

Set your thermostat a few degrees lower in the winter and a few degrees higher in the summer to save on heating and cooling costs.

Install compact fluorescent light bulbs (CFLs) when your older incandescent bulbs burn out.

Unplug appliances when you're not using them.

Wash clothes in cold water whenever possible. As much as 85 percent of the energy used to machine-wash clothes goes to heating the water.

Use a drying rack or clothesline to save the energy otherwise used during machine drying.

Save water to save money

Take shorter showers to reduce water use. This will lower your water and heating bills too.

Install a low-flow showerhead. They don't cost much, and the water and energy savings can quickly pay back your investment.

Plant drought-tolerant native plants in your garden. Many plants need minimal watering. Find out which occur naturally in your area.

Walk or bike to work

This saves on fuel and parking costs

while improving your cardiovascular health and reducing your risk of obesity.

Eat smart

If you eat meat, add one meatless meal a week. Meat costs a lot and it's even more expensive when you consider the related environmental and health costs.

Buy locally raised, humane, and organic meat, eggs, and dairy whenever you can. Purchasing from local farmers keeps money in the local economy.

Skip the bottled water

Use a water filter to purify tap water instead of buying bottled water. Not only is bottled water expensive, but it generates large amounts of container waste.

Bring a reusable water bottle, preferably aluminum rather than plastic, with you when traveling or at work.

Think before you buy

Go online to find new or gently used secondhand products. Whether you've just moved or are looking to redecorate, track down furniture, appliances, and other items cheaply or for free.

When making purchases, make sure you know what's "Good Stuff" and what isn't.

Borrow instead of buying

Borrow from libraries instead of buying personal books and films. This saves money, not to mention the ink and paper that goes into printing new books.

Share power tools and other appliances. Get to know your neighbors while cutting down on the number of things cluttering your garage.

Buy smart

Buy in bulk. Purchasing food from bulk bins can save money and packaging.

Wear clothes that don't need to be dry-cleaned. This saves money and cuts down on toxic chemical use.

Invest in high-quality, long-lasting products. You might pay more now, but you'll be happy when you don't have to replace items as frequently (and this means less waste!).

Keep your cellphones, computers, and other electronics as long as possible

Donate or recycle them responsibly when the time comes. E-waste contains mercury and other toxics and is a growing environmental problem.

Recycle your mobile phone.

Make your own cleaning supplies

All you need are a few simple ingredients like baking soda, vinegar, lemon, and soap.

Making your own cleaning products saves money, time, and packaging-not to mention your indoor air quality.

You could try this method of reducing your electricity bill but the installation of a Solar Photovoltaic System is much easier !

A Solar PV System will save you money & give you a guaranteed tax free income for the next 20 years

Abacus Renewable Energy are based in Axminster and have been accredited to install Solar PV Systems since 2009 and have hundreds of satisfied customers in the South West.

Spring Offer 4 kWp system fully installed

A system of this size would be expected to provide an income of £672 and save over £200 off your electricity bill per year.

Go Green and grow your own

THIS year, why not try something different in the garden - instead of the usual potted plants and creeping ferns, consider a small herb garden or growing your own vegetables.

It's no surprise that the popularity of home-grown herb gardens has taken off thanks to the encouragement of TV personalities, but if you've been put off trying it for yourself, don't fret! It really is very easy, and has tons of benefits like saving you money in the supermarket each week, giving your kitchen a gorgeous aroma and gardening is good for health too, helping you relax and unwind.

The best way to start is with some simple herbs - perfect for people who don't have a lot of space at home, and also so you get used to caring for your herbs - over time you can add as many as you like, or grow your favourites and the ones you use most often.

Start off with some of the most used herbs for cooking - sage, thyme and basil are all versatile and tend to grow well all year with a little TLC. Make sure you check for the best time of year to plant your seeds and when you should move them outside to your garden. Pay close attention to when you should water your herbs and how often - most just require some damp compost to thrive!

If you're feeling more adventurous, you could take it one step further and grow your own vegetables - it never tastes better than when you know you grew it yourself!

Lettuces, beans, peas, radishes and carrots are all easy to grow with a couple of simple tips:

- Make sure the plot you've chosen has good sunlight and good drainage

- And that when you plant the seedlings they have enough space to grow - help them along with a stake or trellis to climb up.

- Provide shelter from the wind and pesky animals, which might want to help themselves to your homegrown greens!

The possibilities are endless, so why not give it a go and try your hand at growing your own. It's easy to get started, and who knows where it could end up!

Chip 20TH-26TH FEB 2012 Week

Calling all 'chip lovers' across the nation from 18th to 24 of February 2013

Whether its straight, chunky, crinkly or wedges, Britain just can't get enough of the delicious potato delight.

Chip Week - Facts & Figures (18-24 February 2013)

1. More than 1.6 million tonnes of potatoes are made into chips every year in the UK – weighing the same as over 14,000 blue whales or 4,000 jumbo jets.

2. The land required to grow potatoes for chips is 33,664 hectares – big enough to fit London's Hyde Park 237 times, or 47,000 Wembley football pitches.

3. Over 250 million fish and chip meals are sold in the UK each year.

4. In one year we eat nearly three billion meals containing chips, with dinnertime the most popular time to eat them (64%) and tea time the second favourite (24%).

5. Brits use at least 26 different words for fish and chips.

6. Using the right spuds for chips can make all the difference - to ensure your chips are lovely and fluffy try King Edward or Maris Piper.

7. Fish and chips outsell Indian takeaways by two to one.

8. The world's largest fish and chip portion was made in July 2012 by Fish and Chips Ltd, London. The fish weighed in at 47.75kg and the chips 23.5kg, breaking the previous Guinness World Record which was held by the Wensleydale Heifer pub.

9. Celebrity chip fans include Rihanna, Kate Moss and David Walliams - and Michelle Obama recently revealed that her biggest food weakness is French fries.

10. A survey of 1,000 adults shows 'chip shop chips' are the nation's favourite chips with nearly half (45%) of all respondents putting them first, followed by French fries (16%), oven chips (14%), potato wedges (8%) crinkle cut chips (7%) and curly fries (7%).

11. The survey also shows that where we live affects our chip choices, with people in the South preferring salt and vinegar on their portion while the Scottish are more likely than people in any other region to choose a portion of curly fries. People in the Midlands have a fondness for curry sauce and cheese with their portion; the Welsh are more likely than other regions to eat their chips straight from the oven; and a quarter of Londoners favour the French fry.

BEAUTÉ NEUVE, DOUBLE PEELING

The epidermis is composed of approximately 30 cell layers. When the outer layers are dehydrated, they cause the face to become dull looking. With the "peeling" treatment it is possible to remove dull cells, letting the glow of new cells shine through. The fruit acids in the Peel In gel, penetrate between dead cells to break the intracellular links, then Peel out those will gently remove them. At the end of the treatment, Clarimasque with pure Vitamin C regenerates the elastic fibres, enhancing a natural glow and lightening the skin.

LIFTOSOME, "REJUVENATING-LIFTING"

TREATMENT.

Liftosome is a treatment completely dedicated to the firmness and youthfulness of the skin, thanks to the key active ingredient: Pro Collagen Concentrate, and the effects of the Thermolift mask. This treatment will redefine the skin and tighten the features.

The Seafood Platter

'Icing on the cake' for seafood restaurant

AWARD winning gastro pub, The Seafood Platter, in Beer, has been named one of the most sustainable fish restaurants in the UK by Fish2Fork.

The campaigning restaurant guide for people who want to eat fish sustainably, acts as an online resource for all who enjoy eating out and want to eat seafood, which has been caught ethically with a low impact on the sea.

Having already been recognised for their emphasis on local sustainable produce and high quality ingredients by bodies such as the Taste of the West, the manager of The Seafood Platter, Luke Hunt, described the recognition as 'the icing on the cake' for their restaurant.

The Seafood Platter received the highest Fish2Fork rating with four and a half blue stars and registered as the 15th best sustainable seafood restaurant out of 585 UK restaurants registered to the site.

Mr Hunt said: "It is a fantastic achievement for us to hear that people can see where we have gone on our journey, having only changed to our name to the Seafood Platter in July 2012.

"We are so pleased that the restaurant has been recognised as one that focuses on sustainable produce that comes from the local area, supporting local farmers and fishermen, reducing the global footprint and aiding the local economy.

"The Seafood Platter has a strong seafood menu and being situated in a fishing village right by the sea, it has always been important to us to deliver the best and highest quality seafood available, whilst ensuring the fish comes from a sustainable and local source.

"Being recognised with four and a half stars on Fish2Fork has been the icing on the cake and the Hunt family are all very proud of how far we have come as a business since opening in 1990."

A spokesperson for Fish2Fork added: "Congratulations to the Seafood Platter restaurant in Beer for winning our 4.5 blue fish rating.

"If all restaurants took the same approach as The Seafood Platter our seas would be in a much better state.

"We are impressed by the strong and responsible environmental stance taken by the owners and heartily congratulate them on achieving a 4.5 blue fish rating.

"They don't serve farmed fish, they stopped using cod 15 years ago, and only use day boat fish. Bass is line-caught and they serve a mix of less familiar species such as pollock, whiting and gurnard. The top-class shellfish include oysters, spider and brown crab, mussels, scallops and lobster.

"We are delighted to award The Seafood Platter a rating that places it among the most sustainable fish restaurants in Britain and Europe."

All-Bach concert from Devon Baroque

A HIGHLIGHT of the 2013 musical year in Colyton will be the visit of Devon Baroque to play an all-Bach programme of cantatas and orchestral suites on Saturday, February 16th, starting at 7.30pm, with wine and canapés served from 6.30pm.

Since its founding by Margaret Faultless in 1999, Devon Baroque has given around a hundred concerts across the south west. It has worked with international soloists such as Emma Kirkby, Michael Chance and Sebastian Comberti and also helps to promote young musicians at the start of their careers.

The orchestra has twice visited Colyton with resounding success - in 2004 with Handel's Acis and Galatea, and in 2006 with a Vivaldi - Telemann programme. Both occasions featured the glorious soprano Amy Carson, later to sing Pamina in Kenneth Branagh's film of The Magic Flute. Amy will return to sing in this concert, along with the highly praised baritone, Julian Rippon.

Of the music to be played on this occasion Jonathan Watts, who took over the direction of Devon Baroque last year, writes: "We shall perform just two of the most well known cantatas to illustrate the rich variety Bach was able to create using the ever changing forces available to him. Both are for solo singer and orchestra and perhaps represent Bach's most creative writing and the interplay between voice and instruments. The concert also includes two of his four orchestral suites of dances in which the strings are variously joined by oboes, bassoon, trumpets and timpani. Suite no. 3 includes the Air which has become famous in an arrangement known as "Air on a G string."

As a footnote, the Devon Baroque violone player is the Colyton-based organic vegetable grower Jan Spencer, who also plays with The Sixteen, Brecon Baroque, the King's Consort and other early music groups.

Tickets are obtainable from Haynes Hardware, Market Place, Colyton 01297 553336 or online from www.wegotickets.com or from Jilly Spencer Tel: 01297 553335

CLAUDE BOURBON TO PERFORM CONCERT OF MEDIEVAL AND SPANISH BLUES

FRENCH guitarist Claude Bourbon will perform a concert of Medieval and Spanish Blues music this Friday in Awliscombe

Claude was born in France in the early 60s, and grew up in Switzerland, where he was classically trained. This finger picking guitarist has performed and studied all over the world; he has crafted an unbelievable fusion of classical and jazz, with ethereal Eastern influences, Spanish and Latin elements with strains of western folk.

The unique Monsieur Bourbon is a formidable performer. He may have his roots in the blues, but he is inspired by music and song from all around the world, taking these sounds and weaving them into a performance of blues, rock, jazz songs and melodies that defy a label, all delivered with a gravelly voice. Come and enjoy a magical evening of high-class entertainment.

The concert takes place at Awliscombe Church on Friday, February 15th from 7.30pm. Tickets from David Chippington (01404 43480) or online from www.wegotickets.com, Adults £7, Children £5.00, Family £20. Refreshments available.

Grand Opening Party for Cranberries

MANY local people may have already experienced the fantastic gem of Cranberries based in Kilminster. If you have yet to discover what Cranberries is about, please read on...

Owner Steven, originally from Surrey, is a successful entrepreneur, and after selling his Surrey business, decided that he had reached a time in his life to move to somewhere more sedate and create a unique holiday complex. After searching for two years looking for a suitable venue, Steven found Hills Farm. He discovered an old Dairy Farm which in his vision could be transformed from outbuildings to luxury dwellings.

So the story begins, he purchased the farm in 2006 and spent the next four years renovating and converting the Barns into what they are today. Not only award winning holiday complex but substantial eco credentials, like ground source heat pumps, solar panels and their own water supply to name just a few of their green credentials. Cranberries has the comfort of a boutique hotel with the privacy of a self catering holiday.

After being operational for over 18 months, Steve decided it was just about time to have a Grand Opening Party, which Cranberries Hideaway will be hosting on Sunday, March 3rd. The party will feature top Adele tribute Jennifer Giles.

Jennifer is one of The UK's Leading Adele Tribute Acts. Performing Adele's most popular hits including "Someone Like You", "Rolling in the Deep" and "Make you feel my Love"; tracks from the award-winning albums 19 and 21 plus the theme from the recent Bond Film 'Skyfall'. Jennifer captures elements of Adele's soulful, gritty and unique voice, captivating audiences wherever she goes.

Jennifer has worked across the UK and Europe performing at venues from large arenas to intimate wine bars. Her soulful voice shows influences from jazz and soul Divas such as Ella Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday, Aretha Franklin, Dusty Springfield and of course Adele.

In addition to Jennifer Giles' Adele tribute, and a magician, the evening will also include a disco, karaoke and a licensed bar. From every ticket sold a donation will be made to the Axminster skatepark charity in memory of Tom Chubb.

Ticket price is £15.00 to include all entertainment and a basket meal.

For more details call 01297 33193 or email info@cranberrieshideaway.co.uk to purchase.

Beer Pantomime Society's Piggy Power!

BEER Pantomime Society will be taking to the stage for their production of the 'Three Little Pigs.' Packed with fun, colourful costumes and an exciting cast, the production will be taking place from Friday, February 22nd to Sunday February 24th at the Mariners Hall, Beer. There will be two evening performances on Friday and Saturday at 7.30pm and a matinee performance at 2.30pm on the Sunday.

Tickets are available from Beer Newsagents and the off-licence on Fore Street, with £5 for adults and £2.50 for children.

Mighty Hop Brewery launches new stout

FEW people can remember the Vallances Brewery in Sidmouth. The old building that stood on the junction of Brewery Lane and Temple Street producing its own ales and stout from 1832 until it closed just after the second World War. However the beer recipes were saved by 'The Dead Brewers Society' and now have been resurrected in partnership with the Mighty Hop Brewery in Lyme Regis.

The recipe sheet in question this time is for 'Vallances Stout' and dates from 1913. All the measuring was in cwt and lb/oz and temperature in Fahrenheit, but these were quickly transcribed!

Emma Turner, the Mighty Hop Brewster, has created the 2013 Vallances Stout which has been snapped up by local East Devon Pubs.

Landlord of the Volunteer Inn in Sidmouth, Steve Lea, was keen to have the beer as soon as he heard it was available. "The Volunteer is on Temple St, Sidmouth, only a few yards from the old site of Vallances. This is a part of living history and we are very keen to be part of the story!" The Stout will be on sale in the Volunteer and other East Devon pubs during February Half Term week.

Seaton Tramway

SEATON Tramway runs for three miles through East Devon's glorious Axe Valley. Views of the estuary and its wading birds are unrivalled from the popular open toppers, whilst enclosed saloons maintain comfort during bad weather.

The Tramway originated from a miniature system in 1949, which evolved into Eastbourne Tramway (1954-1969). The move to Seaton occurred in 1970, after the company purchased the trackbed of the ex-BR branch.

The terminus is in Harbour Road Car Park, Seaton, from where the trams take you through the Axe Valley to Colyton. You can break your journey at the gift shop and restaurant, which offer a range of souvenirs, hot and cold food, and of course cream teas! The town centre is a short walk; sights include the 12th century church, with its unusual lantern tower.

Look out for all Seaton Tramway's special events - Mother's Day Special - Mum travels Free on March 10th, and the Jazz Evening with Coly River Jazz Band at Colyton Station on March 30th plus lots more. For more details call 01297 20375 or visit the website www.tram.co.uk.

Enjoy the Model Railway Exhibition and Orion at Pecorama, Beer

AS YOU enter Pecorama, the Exhibition and shop welcomes you to the home of the famous PECO brand of model railways, one of the last major model railway production facilities left in the UK. The factory alongside Pecorama produces many hundreds of items for the enthusiast every day, utilising modern specialist machinery with highly skilled local labour.

Since railways fascinate so many adults and children alike in all walks of life, it is not surprising that such a large number of homes already have a model railway. Some enthusiasts are deterred from the hobby in the belief that they would need more space. However our Model Railway Exhibition aims to inspire modellers by demonstrating a variety of practical small layouts to suit every home - with options indoors and in the garden. All boast interactive features and an impressive amount of detail, even those who don't model will marvel at the craft work involved.

Don't miss the chance to play the free quiz during the school holidays. A selection of multiple-choice questions, all related to the layouts, will keep families entertained. The weekly prize is an item of model railway rolling stock. There are no trick questions, but keen eyed observation is essential if you want to be in the prize draw hat.

STANDING in the siding at Beer Victoria Station, is the beautifully preserved 'Orion' Pullman car; part of the 'Golden Arrow' train that used to run from Victoria Station, London to the Channel coast.

Bought and saved from the scrap-heap by Pecorama, Orion was restored by highly skilled craftsmen at the British Rail works in Wolverton. Here the vehicle was repainted in the distinguished umber and cream 'Pullman' livery adding the elaborate lining and coats of arms that adorned these cars in years gone by. The interior, while retaining all the beauty of the original brass decoration and polished wood-work, has been completely refurbished by local craftsmen to include individual seating, an entirely redesigned kitchen and drink dispensary.

It was in January of 1978 that the 40 ton Orion Car was transported the arduous 250 miles by road and now stands majestically at rest adjoining the full size replica station.

Printmaking and Animation exhibition and workshops at Thelma Hulbert Gallery

THIS year's Animated Exeter exhibition at Thelma Hulbert Gallery, Honiton focuses on the wonderful world of printmaking, showcasing animations which feature a variety of printmaking techniques. Examples range from experimental animations by celebrated print studio Double Elephant in Exeter to the award winning 'A-Z', a 3 minute short, three years in the making, recounting the creation of the first London A-Z, which was directed by Sally Arthur and produced by Katie Daniels for Bristol based production company ArthurCox.

During half term, a family 'Animation and Printmaking' drop-in workshop takes place on Tuesday, February 19th from 11am – 4pm. The workshop gives an opportunity to explore animation and printmaking together! Guided by Josh Gaunt and Double Elephant Print Workshop. Just drop-in anytime and have a go, suggested donation £2 per child.

Please note these activities are often busy, so remember, while you wait you can always explore the exhibition or enjoy a drink in the Shop and Refreshment Area.

On Thursday, February 21st, from 10-4pm, there will be a chance to Meet the Animators! Come and see animators and printmakers Josh Gaunt and Catherine Cartwright make an animation over the course of the day using monoprint, drypoint and stop-motion methods. Peer over their shoulders while they work and ask lots of questions. Please note: this is a demonstration, not a 'hands on' workshop.

The exhibition is open now until March 2nd. Admission is free, but donations welcomed. All donations help to support the THG learning and exhibition programme.

Public Notice

A30/A35 Exeter to Bere Regis Trunk Road Maintenance Open Days for Proposed Road Closure

SWH/BBISjv is the Managing Agent Contractor for Connect (A30/A35) Limited.

As part of the strategy for maintaining the A30/A35, it is necessary to carry out some maintenance works between Axminster and Bridport. This work will initially consist of carriageway preparation works to be carried out overnight, followed by surface treatment works which will be carried out using four consecutive 20:00 hrs to 15:30 hrs closures of the A35. It is expected that by using such closures to facilitate all the required works between these points, traffic management along this section of the A35 will be minimised for the remainder of the year.

As was successfully undertaken last year, a fully signed diversion between Honiton and Bridport will be implemented during the closure periods.

Additional information regarding access details for residents and businesses affected by these works will be available at:-

An Open Day at Axminster Guild Hall on Monday 18th February between 09:00hrs and 17:00hrs

and

An Open Day at Bridport Town Hall on Tuesday 19th February between 09:00hrs and 17:00hrs.

Low maintenance property in Beaminster

A BEAUTIFULLY appointed apartment within Stoke Water House set amid the rolling Dorset countryside in an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, yet within easy reach of the picturesque town of Beaminster (approx. 1 mile).

This immaculate and low maintenance property would make an ideal home for buyers seeking a rural retreat without being isolated. The accommodation includes a superb hexagonal living room with beams and high ceilings giving a light and airy feel. From here, double doors open onto a large south facing private terrace, which makes a delightful place for Al Fresco dining, sunbathing or just enjoying the peace and scenery. Adjoining the living room is a well organised kitchen/breakfast room with good storage and this leads to an inner hall off which are two bedrooms and a bathroom, the master bedroom having en suite shower room and a walk-in wardrobe. Outside, there are lovely communal grounds comprising well maintained gardens, an ornamental pond, a paddock, secluded clothes drying area, picnic area and small allotment plots. Each apartment owns a single garage and there is ample visitor parking. The property is a first floor apartment and benefits from uPVC double glazing and gas central heating (LPG).

Stoke Water House is an interesting historic building, built in 1838 as a workhouse. Its unusual shape is reminiscent of an anchor from an aerial view point. Today, it forms a complex of 21 homes, varying in size and nestled in approx. 3 acres of communal ground, situated to the west of the pretty market town of Beaminster. With an asking price of just £215,000 the property represents good value for money. Please call Gordon & Rumsby on 01297 553768 or 01460 30888 for more information or to book a viewing. Alternatively, see our website for full details: www.gordonandrumsby.co.uk.

Former Cider House Set in the picturesque rural hamlet of Heathstock for £419,950

BELIEVED to date back to the 1700's this former Cider House has been recently renovated and extended offering versatile and deceptive accommodation of 3/4 bedroom, 4/5 reception rooms.

Retaining much of its original character with flagstone floors, exposed beams, woodwork and stone features, wooden doors, vaulted ceilings and farmhouse style kitchen with oil fired Aga.

Set in the picturesque rural hamlet of Heathstock, enjoying the fabulous views over the rolling countryside of Stockland Valley.

The property benefits from oil fired central heating, underfloor heating in the recent extension and double glazing throughout. The accommodation briefly comprising: entrance porch opening to the reception hall, doors and passageway leading off to further accommodation: lounge with woodburner, impressive farmhouse kitchen/diner with inglenook recess housing the Aga, bespoke dining room/conservatory, study/bedroom 4, with step up to the recent extension, currently an open plan family room with utility area offering the potential to divide into separate rooms, wet room (currently being completed) and back door to the outbuildings. Stairs rise off the reception hall to landing with galley and doors off to 3 double bedrooms, two of which face to the front across the valley enjoying the views, one with a separate mezzanine/gallery the other with a separate gallery area within the vaulted ceiling. Further double bedroom with rural outlook at the rear of the property and family bathroom.

Outside the property is approached off the lane, either by steps to the front door or from the parking area at the rear via a walkway through the stone outbuilding (offering potential for a variety of uses subject to the necessary planning and building regulations). Pathways lead around the property to the level enclosed gardens, giving access to the conservatory/dining room and fully appreciating the rural location. Just up the lane past the property is a small paddock/further garden area measuring approx. 0.22 of an acre currently laid to grass. Energy Rating D.

We strongly recommend an internal inspection to appreciate the potential and accommodation this property has to offer along with the flagstone flooring and character features.

number of cars financed by FLA members is at its highest level since before the start of the recent financial crisis.

"The factors underpinning consumer confidence in motor finance seem likely to continue. And a quarter of all showrooms are now approved under the FLA's Specialist Automotive Finance initiative (SAF), which helps ensure high levels of understanding of the finance options available to customers."

During 2012, motor finance providers saw a 14% rise in the total number of new and used cars bought by consumers and businesses using dealer finance. A total of 1.91 million cars were financed, compared with 1.67 million in 2011.

This strong growth in dealer-based motor finance meant there was a significant increase in the percentage of private new car sales financed by FLA members, which rose from 63.5% in 2011 to 71.2% in 2012.

The consumer used car finance market also had a good year. Overall in 2012, this market reported both value and volume growth of 8% compared with 2011.

MATCH REPORTS

CREWKERNE TOWN 3 MILLWEY RISE 2
Perry Street League Premier division
A VERY evenly contested fixture was determined by a poor first 30 minutes from Millwey Rise and two second-half debatable red card decisions, which put Rise down to nine men.

A game full of chances on a less than easy surface saw Crewkerne 3-1 up with half an hour gone before both Matty Lewis and Wayne Waddon were dismissed by referee Simon Salter.

Lewis received received a straight red for a foul while Waddon was shown two yellows, the second believed to be for dissent.

But Rise battled away and were perhaps unfortunate not to finish with a share of the points.

Nathan Womersley and a returning Terry Emmett were the scorers for Millwey.

Emmett is back after his short sabbatical at Axminster Town and will replace Callum Somers, who has left Millwey to go back and play at Colyton.

DEVON & EXETER LEAGUE ROUND-UP
PREMIER division leaders FENITON had to grind out a 3-1 win against a stubborn TOPSHAM TOWN.

All the goals came in the first-half with Ben Ede, Charlie Selley and Paul Dowling all celebrating their call-up for the pick-of-the-league squad with goals.

Dave Brown notched a free-kick for the Tops who had a man red-carded.

Second place HATHERLEIGH TOWN came from a goal down against BEER ALBION to take the lead with two penalties by Greg Mitchell.

The same player went on to complete his hat-trick with Mark Lake also scoring to win the game 4-1. Richard Walker was the Beer scorer.

ST MARTINS hit BUDLEIGH SALTERTON RESERVES for six without reply.

Division Two Leaders ELMORE RESERVES beat a battling HONITON TOWN 3-1 with Callum Old, Jordan Copp and Gavin Batten scoring.

SIDBURY UNITED were held 2-2 by struggling TIPTON ST JOHN who are also waiting their first win.

BOW AAC BEAT bottom of the table COLYTON 3-2 but the visitors did not lie down easily. Louie Kinch 2 and Nick Mingo scored for Bow.

AXMOUTH UNITED were surprisingly thrashed 5-1 at lowly Lords XI.

CHERITON FITZPAINE extended their lead in Division Five to nine points as they beat LAPFORD 4-1, while second place HATHERLEIGH RESERVES were held 2-2 by BEER ALBION RESERVES.

The Fishermen took the lead through Pedro Fontek. But the hosts scored twice to lead 2-1 at the interval.

Callum Grbble grabbed a well deserved equaliser for Beer early in the second-half.

Beer manager Matt Hales was impressed with his team, he said: "We've really improved in the last five weeks. The commitment at training is superb and we're in good shape ahead of Saturday's must-win game against Westexse - which is our biggest game of the season so far." Hales gave his MoM award to left-midfielder Sam Phillips.

Finally, Division Seven leaders FLUXTON won their local derby against OTTERY RESERVES 3-2 while down in division eight COLYTON RESERVES were trounced 6-2 at home by Pinhoe.

Sunshine for new captain

AXE CLIFF with Janet Dack
SENIORS

DESPITE the very damp conditions on last Friday, the scores in the Seniors' February Stableford were remarkably good.

Two players returned scores of 37 points and the winner, on countback, was Peter Knighting (15) edging out John Mant (18) who took second place.

Third, one point behind with 36 points, was Bill Polley (15).

The pins must have been in favourable positions as there were six 2s from the 27 competitors.

Playing together, Mick Tomes, Dave Sammons and Stuart Mackie all had 2s at the 11th. Mackie also had another 2 in the round and Bill Grundy and Iain Bain made up the six.

MAIN CLUB

DIVISION One winner of the February Medal last Sunday was Cyril Hellier (12) with a nett 70 beating Dougie Board (12) also with a nett 70 on countback.

Third place went to Craig Trivett (11) with a nett 71. In Division Two the first three all reduced their handicaps. Stuart Dickson came in with a nett 62 reducing his handicap from 23 to 19.7.

Anthony Hellier took second place with a nett 66 reducing his handicap from 15 to 13.3 and, in third place on countback from Matt Donnan, was Dan Taylor with a nett 67.

HONITON with Andy Wagner

LADIES SECTION

AGAINST all the odds the course was open last Wednesday and 48 ladies braved the elements for the new Lady Captain's Drive-In.

There was rain, hail, sleet, biting wind and enough water underfoot for the ducks to paddle, but the winning team in this 4BBB, 2 scores to count, competition over 14 holes - Diana Gee, Linda Northover, Jeanne Mackinnon and Catherine Hunt - came in with a very impressive score of 64 Stableford points.

Second, with another excellent score of 62 points, were Mona Carter, Catherine Doherty, Lesley Oxenham and Jan Lloyd.

New Lady Captain, Pam Greenaway, stepped up for her inaugural drive and the sun finally decided to shine - could this be a sign of better weather this year?

Pam's drive was straight down the middle and afforded Jan Dickinson the "closest the pin" prize.

SENIORS SECTION

SIXTY TWO Seniors were very pleased to get out on the course to play their first competition for a month.

It was a Stableford and the sixth of the winter eclectics, played in a cold wind and on a wet track.

Ron Graham won the first division with a score of 36 points and in the process was shown a red card and lost two shots from his handicap for the rest of the season.

Dave Maggs came second, and he lost one shot. On the same score of 34 were Tony Williams and Tony Proudfoot, with Don Stroud taking the last prize.

Division two was won by Jack Phillips on 37. Norman Runciman scored 34 and lost one shot from his handicap.

Phil Faulkner came third with 33 and the last two prizes were won by Fred Thomas and Don Leach.

Good, but beaten

Seaton Town Ladies 0 Tavistock Ladies 2

Devon Ladies League division one

ON a wet and boggy pitch, Seaton Town Ladies produced a very good display and didn't deserve to lose to a strong Tavistock side.

Lara Spiers hit the post, Tara Arnott went close as did Jim Coleman, but it was a day when it just wouldn't go in for the Greens.

The hosts netted twice in the second-half that won the game.

Seaton team: Jeans, Burrridge, Perrin, Collins, Westlake, Spiers, Lamprill, Campbell, Coalter, Arnott, Coleman, Dieterle, Foxwell.

Seaton Ladies are still looking for players aged 15 and upwards, anybody interested should contact Jamie Bond on 07703647709.

Tiverton White Eagles 0 Honiton Hornets 2

HONITON travelled to mid-Devon on a cold, damp and grey morning.

But the team did not let the weather conditions deter them.

They opened the scoring inside the first five minutes when Laura Frank found the net at the second attempt after her initial effort had been well saved by the Tiverton goalkeeper.

The lead was doubled just before the interval through Kathryn Tucker after link-up play with Sophie George.

The home side came out hard in the second-half seemingly determined to even up the score line; but this proved to be beyond them.

However, although Honiton were repeatedly in the Eagles' area they were continually denied by the home goalkeeper who was in superb form throughout.

Player of the Match: Vicky Morris very closely followed by Kathryn Tucker.

Practices continue on Wednesday evenings between 8pm and 9pm on the all-weather surface adjacent to Honiton Sports Centre.

This surface is not the best for hockey sticks, and it is likely to cause damage to your stick so PLEASE, if possible, use an old stick for training, Cost £2 per session.

All interested in hockey - regardless of current experience and skills - will be made most welcome, so just turn up.

scrum down rugby round-up

Chiefs turn on the style with big win

WITH WILL MOWBRAY

Sidmouth 1st XV 43 Paignton 1st XV 0

THE Chiefs have had a number of disappointing performances this season, but when they have been good, they have been very good, and on Saturday against boggy team Paignton they were excellent.

They defied the muddy conditions to score some top class tries playing skilful 15-man rugby.

The first score came after just two minutes, when Dukes Man-of-the-Match Glenn Channing fielded a clearance kick inside his own half and started a handling move, which went to the left and then right before Alva Senderayi applied the finishing touch. Tom Whelan added the conversion.

Channing scored the second try after 15 minutes. Ollie Pyne made the running with a typical surging burst before setting up a ruck deep inside the Paignton 22. When the ball was recycled, the inside centre ran a good angle to wrong-foot the defence and cross near the posts. Again Whelan converted.

Straight from the restart kick Jack Pyne and Alva Senderayi combined with powerful runs to put the Chiefs back on the attack. Ollie Pyne broke from the back of a lineup before Glenn Channing made a half break to set up Tom Whelan for a try, which he converted.

When the Chiefs turned over possession just inside their own half, the Pyne brothers combined up the blindside before the ball was switched to the backs.

Quick, accurate handling put Chris Higgs in space and he outpaced the cover to touch-down the bonus point fourth try. Tom Whelan made it four out of four conversions.

Paignton, who had been inactive for a month due to the weather, eventually shook off the rust and for 15 minutes either side of halftime they competed strongly, but rarely threatened the Sidmouth line.

As the game progressed, the pitch began to resemble a paddy field, making constructive rugby difficult. With the Chiefs pack gaining the upper hand, they finished strongly. Midway through the half Tom Whelan dummied his way over from a ruck near the line after a period of sustained pressure. The try was unconverted.

Then, with ten minutes to go, a Paignton knock on went straight into the hands of Ollie Pyne.

The number eight shrugged off three would be tacklers on his way to the line. Tom Whelan kicked the conversion and a late penalty to complete the scoring.

The win lifts the Chiefs into the top half of the table and ten points clear of the relegation zone.

On Saturday the Chiefs travel to Bath where they take on Oldfield Old Boys.

At the Blackmore the Quins entertain first team opposition in the form of Devon One side New Cross. The kick off is at 2.30pm.

The Colts defend their 100 percent Merit Table record against Barnstaple Colts at Sidford in a 2.30pm kick off.

Honiton 2nds 22 Cullompton 2nds 0

HONITON seconds entertained their Cullompton counterparts in the much-anticipated local derby on Saturday and ran out comfortable 22-0 winners.

In almost unplayable conditions, Honiton kicked off down the slope and it was clear from the off that both sides had the bit between their teeth and were keen for the victory.

The opening exchanges were tough and the conditions were causing several errors. However this allowed Honiton to prove, as they have all season, their dominance in the scrum and this allowed good platform for the backs.

The impressive James Powell showed a good step to cross over for his first try of the game, which was converted by Carnall. The remainder of the half continued to be a pulsating affair, but again errors were creeping in.

A superb walking maul by the Honiton pack again saw the ball get to Powell who crossed over for his second try of the game, leaving the Club receives accreditation

■ PAMELA Farrant, the Chard & District Swimming Club's Swim 21 Co-ordinator, and Eric van den Barselaar, Chairman, holding the certificate, together with some of the club officials, coaches, young volunteers and swimmers.

◆ CHARD & District Swimming Club has recently been awarded the A.S.A. Quality Mark of Swim 21 Accreditation for swimming skill development.

The Club has worked steadily to gain a series of required A.S.A. outcomes, all of which are deemed by the A.S.A. to be essential for long term athlete development.

The Swim 21 Accreditation recognises nationally and regionally that Chard and District Swimming Club is committed to providing a safe, effective and quality service to all members and is a planning tool to enable athletes, teachers, coaches and administrators to achieve their full potential.

Chard and District Swimming Club currently has around 140 members aged 5 years-adult from Chard, Crewkerne and surrounding villages, East Devon and West Dorset. Training sessions are held at Chard, Crewkerne and Axminster and the Millfield School 50 metre pool.

Sessions begin with the 'C Otters' learn to swim group, and progress through to those swimming with County, Regional and National qualifying times.

The club holds in-house galas, and attends Open Meets as well as the County, Regional and National Championships, and takes part in The Southern Junior League and National Swimming League. New members are always welcome. For further information regarding club activities please look at the club website

TWO 6-2 wins have provided a new Evening leader - Musbury are now three points clear of Colyton who do have two games in hand so it's not over yet.

West Hill, 7-1 winners, are now guaranteed a top two finish as they also have a three point margin, so just one season in division 2.

Sidford's 8-0 win moves them up one place to third, well within striking distance of a top two finish.

In the afternoon St Teresa's second win in succession, 7-1, gains them a place to fourth, while Musbury 5-3, have the same number of points.

In division 2 Seaton Cliff B's 5-3 win moves them 2 points ahead of their A team colleagues in the top place while Hemyock, 7-1, gain a place to fourth.

In division 3 Chard B, 7-1, and Seaton Cliff C, 6-2, each gained one place with Chard now the top teams, one ahead of Sidbury who have a game in hand, and Seaton who are now fourth.

RESULTS: (Division One) Met Office Weather Girls 32 Tip Top Trees 11.

The only game in division one was between the two bottom sides – both of who have already been relegated.

The Met Office Weather Girls took control of their game against Tip Top Trees early on and led from start to finish to end with a comfortable 32-11 victory.

Once again Rebecca Green was the pick of the Weather Girls whilst the 3Ts star was Phoebe Confrey.

Division Two: Howden Hawks 22 Water Babies 20, Sidmouth Toucans 31 JD Tyres 12, Hi Q 25 Pixies 14.

In division two the promotion race is hotting up, and although Hi Q are in pole position it is still mathematically possible for any of the top four teams to fill the top two spots.

Hi Q met second placed Pixies, whose form has been a bit erratic of late.

With Sara Benson playing well the Pixies started strongly and they led 7-4 at quarter time.

Although the leaders rallied in the second quarter it was still Pixies in front 11-9 at half way. The third quarter saw Hi Q level at 13-13.

In the final quarter Sadie Moran was in great form for Hi Q and they took the game by the scruff of the neck to record a thrilling 25-14 win, leaving the Pixies with a point from their splendid performance.

Sidmouth Toucans got off to a flying start against JD Tyres and they lead 18-7 at half way.

With Helen Terry in great form at GA the Toucans extended the lead to 25-9. Although Jenny Bryant worked hard for JD Tyres they eventually went down 31-12.

The final game saw the young Howden Hawks up against newcomers Water babes who were still looking for their first point of the campaign.

Hawks, with Zoe Dunn playing well led 13-6 by half way.

With Sam Clarke pulling the Babes together for the final quarter they just missed out losing 22-20 but celebrated their first point!

Two races for Roberts

Axe Valley Runners

WITH DAVE MUTTER.

LIAM Roberts raced in both the BUCS (British Universities and Colleges Sport) cross-country championships in Leeds and a Birmingham Cross-Country League Division 1 fixture.

He raced in the men's B-race at BUCS, which was held as the final race of the day after close to 1000 competitors had already used the course.

By this point, the multi-lap, 7.5km course resembled a river of mud coursing its way around some playing fields. Liam struggled with the conditions underfoot and finished 63rd in 30:21.

At the Birmingham League the conditions were slightly better with half of the (approximately) 10km course being firm underfoot and the other half being somewhat less so.

Liam fared much better here to come 27th in 34:56, his highest position by 10 places and a good move forward as he continues to regain fitness.

Lesley Adams ran the Stourbridge ladies 7k and got a prize for her age category W55.

As it's the only prize she has ever won Lesley was really pleased, especially as she beat her 2008 time by 3 mins.

On Sunday Luke Reed took part in the Exeter Half Marathon.

On arrival to the event, the organisers apologised that some of the course was flooded, so they had to change the route, making it more like 12 miles.

As it turned out the course change actually made it longer, 13.3 miles!

Luke went on to run a very solid race, averaging 6.17min per mile finishing 8th out of 217 in 1:23.40.

Richard Easton also had a superb race, finishing 12th and getting a PB in 1:26.14.

Mixed time for bowlers

AXMINSTER Indoor Bowling Club won two of the three mixed friendlies played but again came unstuck away against our 'bogey' side Taunton BC (38-67) in what can only be described as 'a bad day at the office' WRITES DAVID HARRIS.

However, we then enjoyed two good home wins – first against Severalls (62-42) with wins for William Cook, Morrison Brown, Ann Clayton, and Margaret Crompton (24-12) and Phil White, Pauline Knight, David Harris, and Brian Clark (22-13), and a tie for Margaret Brown, Daphne Ryan, Pam Hunter, and Bob Sherborne (17-17).

This was followed by a 61-40 win against the South-West Umpires with wins for John Hill, Daphne Ryan, David Harris, and Margaret Crompton (23-10) and Lilian Lovatt, Ann Clayton, Ken Quick, and Jean Kesterton (21-12).

In a mens' mixed friendly we lost narrowly at home to an Exeter and District Over 60's League representative side (49-53) with a winning rink of Bob Turpin, Gerald Knott, Geoff Clode, and Paul Moffitt (18-15).

The Ladies excellent run in their County Foxlands League came to an end with their defeat against Sidmouth (final score unavailable) but the home rink of Joan Quick, Mary Preston, Alison Glyde, and Ann Clayton did well to win by five shots.

Barren weekend for the region's leading teams

BOTH local teams suffered home defeats in the South-West peninsula League division One (East) at the weekend.

Sidmouth Town's improvement continued as they pushed visiting Appledore all the way before going down 3-2 at Manstone Road. At the same time Axminster took the lead but couldn't cling on as they went down to a disappointing 4-1 reverse against Totnes & Dartington.

The Vikings, still marooned seven points adrift at the foot of the table, have an opportunity to close that gap at the weekend when they visit next-to-bottom Crediton United.

Next up for the Tigers is a visit by Appledore – both games kick-off at 3pm

Down in the Devon & Exeter League the top three in the premier division all won. Top-of-the-table Feniton overcame a gritty Topsham Town outfit to clinch a 3-1 win at Acland Park and maintain their three-point lead.

Next up for still unbeaten Fenny is a real title six-pointer with Saturday's visit by second-placed Hatherleigh Town.

Feniton were due to take on Seaton Town in the rearranged East Devon Senior cup-tie on Sunday, but the game was once again postponed.

By Howard Larcombe
howard@pemedi.co.uk

Seaton's scheduled visit by Newtown 24 hours previously was also postponed. The Seasideers are set to travel to Thorverton looking to halt an alarming six game win less run.

Meanwhile, Richard Walker's ninth goal of the season couldn't save Beer Albion from a 4-1 defeat at Hatherleigh. The Fishermen set sail for Topsham at the weekend.

In division one Sidbury United's title aspirations received a blow as they were held to a 2-2 draw at lowly Tipton St John. But the Seagulls will have been heartened by news of rivals Tiverton Town Reserves' 1-0 defeat at Heavitree Social United. Sidbury, still unbeaten, travel to Wellington Reserves on Saturday.

Down in division two Honiton Town's seven game winning run came to an end as they went down 3-1 at title favourites Elmore. The Lacemen will hope for better when they visit Colaton Raleigh for a Firewatch Devon Senior cup quarter-final on Saturday.

Meanwhile, after having Saturday's match at Bickleigh postponed Sidmouth Town Reserves have no fixture.

The Vikings second-string have been docked a point after failing to raise a side for failing to raise a team for the match with Dawlish on December 1st.

Offwell Rangers went down 4-1 at University to remain too close to the division three drop zone for comfort. Next up for the Rangers is Saturday's visit by Hem-yock.

After having their match at Uptonery postponed Ottery St Mary return to action when they welcome Lymington while Uptonery travel to unbeaten Dolphin.

◆ D&E pick-of-the-league manager Josh Stunell has selected the Feniton Town trio of Paul Dowling, Charlie Selley and Ben Ede and Seaton duo Dan Norman and Jacob Hayes in his squad which is due to take on the Senior League squad at Cullompton tonight (Tuesday).

Adrian Parr, Ben Farrington (both Colaton Raleigh) and Ash Small, Russell Coombes and Mike Benyon (all Sidbury) have been named in Adam Reid's Senior squad.

■ STILL SMILING: Colyton have found life tough in the Devon & Exeter League division one this season. The team are pictured here before the recent match with Witheridge, line-up, standing, from left: Ross Maddocks (assistant-manager), Nick Mason, Nathan Maddocks, Jimmy Richards, Curtis Statham, Paul Millman, Chris Platts, Jack Hyde, Matt Osman (manager). Front: Mike Cullum, Jason Potter, Mark Potter, George Moore, Jacob Young, Theo Hill.
